WHO AM I?

Who Am I? is a fun game that keeps kids hydrated while having fun. Now you can play at home by just printing out animal cards and placing them on the bottom of your own cups. The objective is the same; be the first to figure out which animal is at the bottom of your cup by asking other players for clues. You get to ask for one clue for every sip you take, so you need to guess fast to win the game!

What you need:

- ▶ 1 character for each player
- ▶ 1 cup for each player
- ▶ Tape
- ▶ Water

How it works:

- ▶ Select characters for each player.
- ▶ Place a character on the outside bottom of cup without revealing the character to players.
- ▶ Fill cups with water.
- ▶ Drink water each time player wants to ask a question.
